Insurance With a Human Touch

At SCPIE — a leading provider of medical malpractice insurance — we know that not all physicians have the same coverage needs.

That's why we've developed SCPIE Solo, a new policy that provides basic liability protection at a lower price than our traditional policy.

Although SCPIE Solo does not include all the features and benefits we normally provide, it may be the right choice for some physicians facing reduced incomes and rising insurance rates.

To find out if SCPIE Solo is right for you, call us at 800/717-5333, or visit us online at www.scpie.com.
